—Mr. John W. Mock, aged 80 years, died Wednesday at 3:30 a. m., after a lingering illness of general debility at the home of his son, Mr. Joel W. Mock.

Mr. Mock was one of the oldest and best known undertakers in Kentucky, having devoted more than half a century of his life to that occupation. He was born near Millersburg, and the greater part of his life has been spent here. He resided for a time in Missouri, where he was engaged in the dry goods business. From there he returned to Carlisle, where for many years he operated an undertaking establishment. About thirty years ago he returned to Millersburg, where he engaged in the undertaking business, operating under the firm name of Mock & McClintock for many years. In 1894 Mr. Current retired from the firm and the business was operated by Mr. Mock alone for a few years, after which time his only son, Mr. Joel W. Mock, assumed the business, though until recently the elder Mock has been an active man in the business, doing a large part of the work of the establishment. Mr. Mock was one of a large family, and is survived by one sister, Miss Lucy Mock, of Ruddles Mills. He belongs to a historic family and his grandfather served in the revolutionary war. He was united in marriage early in life to Miss Katherine Howard, at Moorefield, the union being blessed with two children, Mr. Joel W. Mock, of this city, and Mrs. O. C. Pope, who preceded him to the grave some ten years ago. He was a typical Kentucky gentleman, loving in his family and true to his friends. He has performed many acts of kindness and charity of which the world knows nothing. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon from his late residence after a short service by Rev. A. S. Venable, of the Presbyterian church. Interment in the Millersburg cemetery. Quite a number of friends from surrounding towns were present to pay their last respects.

THEATRICAL

"THE PASSING SHOW OF 1912."

—Lexington's theatre beautiful, The Ben Ali, will open on September 23rd and 24th, with the New York Winter Garden's mammoth production, "The Passing Show of 1912." "The Passing Show of 1912" is a kaleidoscopic almanac in seven scenes of splendor, fun and music and comes with the original cast including Trixie Friganza, Charles Prince, Eugene and Willie Howard, Clarence Harvey, Moon and Morris, Texas Guinan, Louise Brunelle and 80 others.

As the name implies "The Passing Show of 1912" is a review of important events of the year 1912, and needless to say, everything is treated in a humorous way. For example, the harem scene from "Kismet" is reproduced almost in its entirety, but this applies only to the actual scene. Scenes from "Bouquet and Paid For," "Officer 666," "The Return of Peter Grim," "The Quaker Girl," "Oliver Twist," and other successes are also handled in a like manner.

The production by far the most enormous ever staged at the Winter Garden was produced by New Wayburn, who has devised many original stage tricks.

Trixie Friganza, the singing comedienne, who is one of the principal players of the Winter Garden Company, presenting the "Passing Show of 1912," is recognized as one of the foremost musical comedy artists on the American stage. Miss Friganza is a special feature in the numerous extravagant burlesques on popular plays in the forthcoming revue.

The advance sale will open this morning at 9 o'clock at the box office in the theatre.

Mail orders should be accompanied by check or money order, and will be filled in the order of their receipt, seats as near those desired as possible will be reserved. If tickets are to be forwarded enclose stamped addressed envelope to avoid error.

Prices: $2, $1.50, 75c, and 50c, every seat in the house being reserved. "The Passing Show of 1912" will be followed at the Ben Ali by "A Romance of Billygoat Hill," a dramatization of Alice Hagan Rice's novel of the same name, for the remainder of the week with a matinee on Saturday.

PROF. HENDRICKS CHOSEN BIBLE CLASS TEACHER

Dr. T. P. McCartney, of Transylvania University, of Lexington, who has so ably taught the Men's Bible Class of the Paris Christian church for the past eighteen months, ended his work among us Sunday, Sept. 14.

Prof. T. A. Hendricks, Superintendent of the Paris City Schools, has been chosen to succeed Dr. McCartney as teacher.

A strong effort is being made to build up this class so that it may compare favorably with similar classes in our neighboring cities. All members are urged to be present Sunday morning, Sept. 21, at 9:30 sharp, to greet the new teacher and assist in the work we are planning.

All men of the city and county, regardless of church affiliation, are invited to become members of the class. Visitors always welcome.

Thirty-one women are employed as railway brakemen and ten as baggage-men in the United States.

TOLLE ACQUITTED OF MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

ONE OF THE ESSENTIAL DUTIES OF CITIZENSHIP

Tuesday, October 7, is Registration Day, and every voter of the city, who is here between the hours of 6 a. m. 9 p. m., unless prevented by sickness, must register, in order to be allowed to vote during the ensuing year.

No Democrat should let anything, except sickness or absence from home during the hours named, prevent him from registering, and our Democratic neighbors should be reminded of this requirement.

The right to vote is a sacred duty and failure to exercise that privilege is conclusive evidence of one's lack of appreciation of the obligations of citizenship.
